Preview of 'Texas-Express'

Director Steve Hilton and members of the "Texas-Express" cast, which is making its winter home at the Fair Theatre from September through next May after the summer run of the musical drama "Texas" at Palo Duro Canyon, performed a mini-preview Thursday. "Texas-Express" will stage musical variety shows one Saturday night a month. Individual and season tickets will be available. At the conclusion of the lively noon performance Thursday that included a musical tribute to Plainview, Fair General Manager Mike Fox presented Hilton with a stick horse.
